
Parent Survey

I want to meet the needs of your child from the very beginning of the school year. The information you're able to provide for me is an invaluable teaching tool and makes it that much easier for me to help your child be successful. I greatly appreciate your time and I will keep all information confidential. PLEASE PRINT LEGIBLY. OK to email me your responses. Please return the completed survey by Friday, September 9. Thank you. I'm excited to continue our work together.

1. What skills (not merely academic) do you think your child needs to focus on this year?

[Need more room? Feel free to attach additional pages.]

2. What goals (not only academic) would you like your child to accomplish this year?

3. How much reading did your child do this summer? _____

4. Did your child achieve a personal goal this summer? If so, what was it? _____

Please turn page over, there's more...

5. If you feel your child had a particularly successful year last year, how can WE continue that momentum? If you believe your child struggled last year, what can WE (student-teacher-parent) do differently to improve this year's outcome?

6. What do you think your child is excited about for this school year?

7. Is there anything in particular your child is NOT looking forward to this school year, or is anxious about?

8. Have there been any new developments over the summer you would like me to be aware of?

9. Feel free to make any additional comments, ask any questions you have at this time, or let me know any new info.

Thank you again for taking the time to complete this important survey. I'm looking forward to our continued work.

Please return this survey to Ms. Wasson by Friday, September 9.
