

Pick a feeling and bring it to life. Imagine it in your mind's eye. See it. Don't think too hard. This is straight from your imagination.

1. Give it a human name.
2. Physically describe it (head to toe)
 - gender (male or female or mixed)?
 - hair?
 - face?
 - facial expressions?
 - clothes?
 - shoes?
 - body type?
 - smells like?
 - sounds like?

3. Describe its day-to-day life
 - parents?
 - friends?
 - where does it live?
 - what does it eat for each meal?
 - what's its favorite dessert?
 - pets?
 - does it go to school?
 - does it go to church?
 - work?

4. Describe its possessions
 - what's in its pocket?
 - what's in its drawers?
 - what is its good luck charm?
 - what kind of music does it like?

Be as descriptive as you can. Use a lot of metaphors and similes. Use a lot of colors. Use a lot of details. You are a photographer using words to create a picture. Use juicy words. Throw in a rhyme here and there, but don't feel you need to rhyme this at all if you don't want to.
